

Shock Absorbers

Each shock absorber (1) has five adjustment positions for different load or riding conditions.

Position I is for light loads and smooth road conditions. Positions II to V increase spring preload for a stiffer rear suspension, and can be used when the motorcycle is heavily loaded. Be certain to adjust both shock absorbers to the same position.

(1) Shock absorber

(2) Pin spanner